

Coldwell Banker

Linda Chang Named No.1 For 11th Year

At the Coldwell Banker Awards Ceremony held at the Ritz-Carlton Huntington Hotel in February, Linda Chang of Coldwell Banker San Marino received numerous designations and again received the company's prestigious International President's Elite award.

She was named Number 1 agent in the San Marino office for the 11th year, Number 1 in the San Gabriel Valley region, and Number 4 in the Southern California Company of Coldwell Banker, comprised of Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego counties.

"We're proud of Linda's achievement, and Chang joined Coldwell Banker in 1979 and has built her real estate career on providing the kind of exceptional service that has produced long-term results and outstanding performance. She is a 12 year member of the firm's Presidents Club and consistently ranks amount the very top sales associates of the company.

When not showing property to her clients, Chang enjoys spending time with her husband and two children, playing tennis and traveling. She is an we thank her for her energy, dedication and commitment," said Dale Williamson, branch manager of the San Marino office. "Because of her efforts we can say to our valued customers and clients, 'Expect the best.' And they have it because of her."

active member of the Pasadena Junior Philharmonic and a Foundation member of the California State University of Los Angeles.

For more information about Linda Chang, and for all real estate needs, call Coldwell Banker San Marino at (626) 449-5222.